The SHE Program offers financial assistance and housing support for up to two years for survivors of domestic violence facing significant barriers to safety and independence. The Home Restored program provides short-term financial assistance and advocacy to help families obtain or maintain safe housing in the community. Other services such as transportation, emotional support, and referrals help survivors of domestic violence thrive in our community. Legal Services Legal Advocates assist clients in obtaining and completing the paperwork needed for legal issues related to domestic violence, such

			as police reports, protective orders, immigration issues, child custody, and divorce. Legal Advocates also accompany clients to court to provide information and emotional support. Staff Attorneys provide direct representation for clients in protective orders, divorce, and custody cases. Counseling Services Peace at Home provides professional counseling services in English and Spanish for adult survivors of domestic violence and their children. These counseling services are focused on trauma recovery to help survivors thrive after leaving violence. Thrift Store Clients shop for free at The Peace at Home Thrift Store using vouchers.
Northwest Arkansas Women’s Shelter Our Mission, Vision, and Four Pillars of Service At the Northwest Arkansas Women’s Shelter, our mission is to provide shelter and support at any hour for those affected by domestic violence in our community. Ultimately, our vision is to break the cycle of domestic violence in NWA, and we hope to achieve this through our four pillars of service: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 24-hour emergency hotline 2. Temporary Shelter 3. Advocacy and support through client services 4. Community engagement and education 	Website: https://nwaws.org/	24/7 Crisis Hotline: 479-246-9999 Office number: 479-246-0353	The Northwest Arkansas Women’s Shelter (NWAWS) provides a safe place for survivors of domestic violence and/or sexual assault to begin their journey towards hope and healing through our 24-hour crisis hotline, 24/7 safe emergency shelter, advocacy and support services and education to the community. Get Help If you are currently or have ever experienced domestic violence or sexual abuse, we are here to help and serve you. If you are currently experiencing abuse and are seeking shelter, legal support, counseling, and other services, please call our hotline at 479-246-9999. If you have experienced abuse or violence in the past and are still in a legal battle and need assistance, would like to join a support group, or want to find other resources, please call our office number at 479-246-0353. No Documentation Required We do not require documentation of any sort for you to qualify for our services. We recognize that abusers often take away, hide, or even destroy important documents to maintain power and control in a relationship. Please, do not let documentation concerns stop you from reaching out if you are in need of our help. We are here for everyone.
